THE GARDEN OF EDEN COLLECTION

Sareh Nouri hopes each bride is transformed into a magical world of emotion and whimsy. This collection looks to spark inspiration into each bride and their partner's love story, making these gowns the missing piece to their fairy tale.

Delicate floral laces and soft touches of sparkle are highlighted throughout the collection, such as seen in the "Meadow", "Willow", and "Poppy" gowns. All three gowns introduce new luxurious laces to the collection and each one has beautiful details to make the bride truly ethereal and romantic. Sareh still utilizes classic and traditional alencon laces in this collection in the most elegant way possible shown on the "To Have and To Hold" and "Primrose" styles. There is a lace gown for any bride!

Always showing timeless clean gowns, Sareh focuses on draping, pleating, and seamwork to make her gowns unique. This season the "Callalily", "Narcissus", "Nightingale" and "Swept Away" gowns truly show flattering and sophisticated clean looks that are standouts with adding to the classic style and signature Sareh Nouri aesthetic.

These gowns speak to grace, elegance, and femininity, which every bride deserves to emote on their wedding day. Each gown is handmade in the United States with the utmost of care and quality. With attention to detail, stunning fabrics, and impeccable fit, the collection is sure to please any bride who wears a Sareh Nouri gown!
