SOMETHING BLUE COLLECTION

Let your love transcend both time and tradition in the Sareh Nouri “Something Blue” Spring 2024 Bridal Collection. Inspired by the Old English rhyme, this collection proves to appeal to brides looking for a timeless, classic, but modern bridal look.

This tradition originated in England during the Victorian Era and symbolizes luck for the bride on her wedding day. “Something Old” represents a tie to the past. The ornate designs within this collection allow for timeless accents and heirloom pieces to complete a bridal look. As “Something New”, Sareh Nouri incorporated intricate beaded fabrics, three dimensional florals, and bold embroidery throughout the designs.

To give someone a “Something Borrowed” is so special, as it represents borrowed happiness, a deeply personal wish for any loved one. The “Something Blue” Collection showcases the color itself and its symbolization of love, trust, loyalty, sincerity, and stability- wishes for any bride entering into a marriage. Sareh has shown touches of blue in her last few seasons and wanted to dedicate a collection to this idea, while keeping true to her beautiful drapery and silhouettes.

Weddings are a time to celebrate your love, your loved ones, and bring hope for your future together. The Spring 2024 bridal gowns look to stand the test of time and become classic bridal looks for years to come.
